DEAR PARTNER

Welcome to the March issue of the Coastal Air newsletter! This month, we're excited to share updates on our recent endeavors. We appreciate your continued support and anticipated ongoing collaboration. Dive in to discover more about our latest highlights and developments!

WOMEN'S DAY 2024

This Women's Day, Coastal Air celebrated the remarkable achievements and unwavering resilience of women in the aviation industry and beyond. Our CEO's special message underscored our steadfast commitment to inclusion and the empowerment of women. We recognize and honor the pivotal role women play in shaping the future of aviation, embodying strength, determination, and excellence in every endeavor. Here's to the incredible women who inspire us all, today and every day.

Invest In Women:
Accelerate Progress

ITB BERLIN

We were thrilled to be part of the renowned ITB Berlin, the leading global travel trade show. Our dedicated representatives, Capt. Idris Mazar and Ms. Athens Baino, showcased Coastal Air's exceptional products and services, connecting with prospective business partners throughout the event. It was a great honor to be part of such a well-planned show, and we eagerly anticipate the opportunity to propel Coastal Air even further.

EXCITING CAREER FAIR AT TANGANYIKA SCHOOL, ARUSHA!

At the heart of the event, Coastal Air proudly joined the Tanganyika Schools Career Fair in Arusha. Our pilot's inspiring stories captivated young aviators, fostering excitement and passion for aviation. Engaging with future pilots was a rewarding experience, and we're honored to receive a certificate of participation, reaffirming our dedication to nurturing talent and advancing aviation education.

THE CYNIC FLIGHT EXPERIENCE!

Begin an unforgettable adventure with Coastal Air's scenic flights, whether it's to Mount Meru, Lake Natron, Oldonyo Lengai, or one of Africa's highest peaks, Kilimanjaro! Experience the breathtaking beauty of elevated nature from the comfort and convenience of our aircraft. Reserve your scenic charter flight and let us satisfy your craving for adventure or tranquil escapes with a seamless experience. If you can't climb it, admire it from the air!
